

Loyola School of Theology, through the Center for Family Ministries (CEFAM), offers a one-year non-degree program for the Professional Diploma in Family Ministries. The diploma program aims to equip priests, ministers, religious brothers and sisters, seminarians, lay-workers and coordinators of family life apostolate for the pastoral care of couples and families. Applicants should contact the Director of the Center for Family Ministries. Click here to view the curriculum at the CEFAM website.